

AUTHENTICATION IN ART

Announcing Prof Dr David Yermack

It is with great pleasure that the AiA Congress Organisation announces the latest addition to the Congress program, Prof Dr David Yermack.

Professor Yermack is currently developing a full curriculum at NYU in the area of FinTech.

His presentation at the AiA Congress 2016 introduces blockchain technology, a major recent innovation in financial record-keeping, and discusses its suitability for use in building an international registry of ownership and object identification for fine art
